Bern, July 3.

THE General Diet of the Helvetick Body, which meets regularly once a Year ſoon after Midſummer, is now going to aſſemble at Frawenfelt, and the Deputies from all the Cantons will repair thither in very few Days. We have no News as yet of the Return of the French Ambaſſadour from his Court, ſo that in Caſe his Abſence continues, the uſual Compliments to the ſaid Diet will be made by M. de la Martiniere, Secretary of the French Embaſſy, on the Part of his Excellency; which Secretary will attend the Diet in Perſon to that End. The Perſons deputed by this Canton to go and enquire into the Damage ſuſtained by the Inhabitants of Thun, a little Town about four Leagues from hence, occaſioned by a ſudden Inundation of the Lake of that Name, being returned hither, have made their Report to the Sovereign Council, and it is now under Deliberation how to indemnify the poor Sufferers, many of whom are reduced to the utmoſt Diſtreſs. On Sunday laſt a general Collection was made throughout this City and Part of the Canton, for repairing the great Loſs ſuſtained at Lauſanne, and in that Neighbourhood, by the Tempeſt of Hail and Wind that happened there the 7th paſt, in which above 200 Acres of Vineyards, 1000 Fruit Trees, and 2000 other Trees were deſtroyed, beſides other conſiderable Damage done to the City of Lauſanne, and the adjacent Villages. The ſolemn Deputation that went three Weeks ago on the Part of this Canton to the Biſhop of Porentru, to mediate a Peace between that Prelate and his Subjects of Bienne, are ſtill there, and it is not yet known when thoſe Deputies will have finiſhed their Commiſſion, by reaſon of the Difficulties they meet with on that Subject.

Stockholm, June 18, O. S. The Muſcovite Gallies which made lately the Ravages in the Bothnick Gulf about Uma, paſſed the laſt Week between the Iſlands on the Finniſh Coaſt and the Continent, and retired towards Wyburg and Petersburg. On the 15th Inſtant the Archbiſhop of Upſal, and a Committee of Ten of the Clergy, waited on the King to repreſent the Inconveniences their whole Order ſuffers by the long Continuance of the preſent Aſſembly of the States, and to pray that they may be diſmiſſed as ſoon as poſſible; and the Peaſants having made like Complaint, it is probable an End will be put to this Seſſion next Week, though as yet no Anſwer has been given to the King's laſt Letter.

Copenhagen, July 6, N. S. On the 29th paſt the Lord Carteret, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour, arrived at Fredericksbourg. His Excellency having brought with him the Treaty of Peace between Denmark and Sweden, agreed to and ſigned on the part of Sweden, that Treaty was, after a Conference on the 1ſt and another on the 2d Inſtant with the Daniſh Miniſters, agreed to likewiſe by the King of Denmark, and ſigned by his Miniſter Plenipotentiary on the 3d.

Paris, July 13. The Congreſs for the Peace with Spain is appointed to be held at Cambray, and an Act is to be ſigned here by the Miniſters of the Powers engaged in the War, for the fixing the Time when the Plenipotentiaries are to meet there. It is adviſed from Sicily, that the firſt Imbarkation of the Spaniſh Troops, to the Number of 12000 Men, ſailed on the 17th paſt for Spain. The Marſhal de Villars is by Order retired from Court to his Country Seat at Villars.

Whitehall, July 6, 1720.
